Seal of Biliteracy Pilot Project

The Seal of Biliteracy recognizes graduates who speak, listen, read and write proficiently in another language in addition to English with a seal on their high school diploma. The goal of establishing the Seal of Biliteracy is to promote long term language study and producing a biliterate, multicultural workforce.

During the 2015-16 school year, educators from across Massachusetts came together to launch a Seal of Biliteracy Pilot Program at the local level, as we await approval of a state Seal of Biliteracy by the state legislature.

A workgroup was formed through the Language Opportunity Coalition — consisting of educators from English language learner, bilingual, dual language, and world language programs — to develop a Seal of Biliteracy Toolkit with guidelines and resources for implementation in Massachusetts. The guidelines, based on practices in place in other states, established four Seal of Biliteracy Pathway Awards that recognize different levels of proficiency in two languages, from Intermediate Low to Advanced Low, and are designed to encourage students to continue on the journey to attaining biliteracy. The Seal of Biliteracy Toolkit was distributed to schools and school districts interested in joining the pilot project, and educators communicated throughout the year via an E-list to address emerging issues related to the implementation.

The first Seal of Biliteracy Awards were presented in Massachusetts in the spring of 2016. Additional school districts plan to join the pilot in the 2016-17 school year.
